FOR THE LEAF-CHRONICLE

An 88-year-old Clarksville woman went on the ride of her life Saturday afternoon, getting behind the wheel of a 1957 Ford Thunderbird, thanks in large part to an area car club.

Hazel Goodlett turns 89 on Sunday, Groundhog Day.

In an early birthday celebration, she met her three children, John and Collier Goodlett and May Meredith, and their families Saturday at the Starbucks on Madison Street. Her son-in-law had arranged a meeting with Clyde Barcus of the Music City Classic Thunderbird Club. However, when other members of the car club learned of Goodlett's birthday wish, including Club President Jim Pfeffer, they decided to come, too.

To Goodlett's amazement, four antique Ford Thunderbirds rolled into the coffee shop parking lot, just to wish her a happy birthday.

"I'm so excited," she said Saturday. "I told the children that before I die, I want to drive a sports car. I don't want to buy a sports car. I just want to drive a sports car."

The car owners immediately took turns hugging and wishing Goodlett a happy birthday and introduced her to their prized machines.

City buses to offer free rides Feb. 3

Clarksville invited to discover cheap way to get around

THE LEAF-CHRONICLE

Clarksville Transit System is inviting the public to ride free all day Thursday, Feb. 3 in a promotion to show people an alternative mode of transportation as the city grows and gas prices rise.

"People are looking for better ways to get around town while saving money, saving time and avoiding traffic congestion," CTS Director Jimmy Smith said in a news release.

"With this free day, we're inviting all Clarksville citizens and visitors who haven't had a chance to ride the bus to do so. And this is also a great way to thank all of our current riders for their patronage. Our buses are clean, safe and convenient, and we'll get you to where you need to go."

CTS buses operate on specific routes that circulate through the downtown Transit Center at 200 Legion St.

"All of our buses leave out of the Transit Center at approximately the same time," Smith said. "They arrive back to the Transit Center at about the same time. That way, riders can have quick and easy transfers, if necessary, to get them to their final destinations."

Smith said riding the bus also promotes physical fitness.

"We have riders right now who ride their bikes to the bus stop, hop on the bus after they stow their bike on our bike racks, which are on every bus, ride to their stop, and then ride their bike the rest of the way," Smith said. "Also, walking to the bus stop from home or business gives you some exercise before you ride."

Fare for a one-way bus ride is usually $1.25, but all rides and transfers will be free on Feb. 3. Passes for those who want to ride the bus more frequently also are available. CTS buses operate 5 a.m.-9 p.m. Monday-Friday. On Saturdays, bus routes begin at 7 a.m. For route and schedule information, go to ridects.com.

DRIVE

heads and carburetors the size of washtubs. Leather upholstery and immaculate interiors caught Goodlett's fascination as she sat in the passenger's seat of the first car, a blue 1956 model.

She was given her choice of which car she wanted to drive, and picked Barcus' white 1957 Thunderbird.

They went to Beachhaven, stopping along the way to meet Goodlett's friend, William Green Lyle, 91. Lyle is a Thunderbird enthusiast and bought one when Ford first made them available in 1955.

Barcus said he enjoyed the ride as much as Goodlett did, if not more, even though Goodlett went a little too fast.

Goodlett told her daughter the Thunderbird was the snazziest car she has ever seen, and that is the reason she fell in love with it.

An extremely grateful Goodlett gave Barcus a hug and thanked him profusely.

Goodlett once worked for the Land Acquisition Department that bought the land on which Fort Campbell was built.

"I kept the books on every acre, house, every arrangement," she said.

Goodlett also has appeared in a commercial for Curves Health Club after becoming an inspiration. The oldest member of the health club, she said she lost three inches around her waist and dropped a few pounds, leading the club to feature her in its commercial.

There are three things Goodlett said she won't do in her old age. She said she won't pump her own gas, learn to use a computer or wear "old lady shoes."

Goodlett said her brother lived to be 92 and her sister lived to be 94. She said she's doing all right herself.

Goodlett wears a pin on her shirt reading "Carpe Diem!"

"That's my motto," she said. "Just go for it! Do it."
